SUNSHINE.

21

11. This interesting little pet met with its death, by its master inadvertently leaning back in a chair, while it was in his pocket. On being squeezed, the poor squirrel gave a shrill scream, and when he took it from his pocket, it was lifeless, to his unspeakable grief, and that of his whole family.

Spell and define the following: taime, incapable, gentle, treatment, amusing, companies, procured, reared, aperture, suspended, familiar, preparing, movements, venturing, outskirts, nibbled, scamper, accomplish, displeasure, annoyance, peeping, pet, inadvertently, unspeakable.

Questions on the Lesson. How may most animals be tamed? Where is Edinburgh? Describe the tame squirrel. In what did this squirrel differ from other squirrels? What do you learn from this lesson? Does it not give you pleasure to learn, that even a squirrel may be made thus amusing ?

Questions on the Rules. What habit does a good reader acquire? Rule 14. To what can you accustom yourself? How should you read? Rule 15. What is to be done if you are becoming embarrassed? What of want of self-possession ? Why should you read carefully? Rule 16 How can you read so as to appear interested ? Rule 17.

LESSON·VI. Sunshine.

1. I Love the sunshine everywhere,—

In wood, and field, and glen ;

I love it in the busy haunts

Of town-imprisoned men.

2 I love it when it streameth in

The humble cottage door,

And casts the checkered casement shade

Upon the oaken floor.

3. I love it where the children lie

Deep in the clovery grass,

Watching among the twining roots

The gold-green beetles pass.
